THE PAROLED MAN.

Lester H. Baldwin the paroled Indiana convict who told the police that he intended to assassinate Major Peyton, superintendent of the state prison, with a revolver he secured by robbery in Louisville, is perhaps less dangerous than despisable, but even if he is not actually bent upon killing anyone he is not the sort of criminal whose liberty serves any good purpose or increases public safety. As a paroled man he serves to illustrate the failure of the parole system in many cases. Courier Journal.

It is not the appraised value in money that makes your gift valuable in the eyes of worthy friends, but the thought you have put into it.

A photograph carries with it not only the outline of your face and form, but rekindles the memory of pleasant days and happy hours, and brings afresh to the mind the priceless boon of friendship.

21,976 FORDS SOLD IN SEPTEMBER

The Ford Motor Co., announces that in the month of September there were sold and delivered 21,976 Ford cars. This was a gain of 11,479 cars over September 1913. This is significant not only because it shows that the Ford production is rapidly being increased to meet the stupendous influx of orders, but also because it demonstrates that the Ford Motor Company is maintaining the 300,000 car-schedule necessary to give Ford purchasers between August 1st, 1914 and August 1st, 1915, a share of Ford profits.

We have just received a car-load of the new 1915 models, and can give you immediate delivery. There's nothing to gain by waiting, so order now and enjoy your car this fall and winter.
